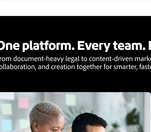
Acrobat Studio connects insights and actions in one integrated solution.

Acrobat Studio is built on the trusted Acrobat platform, delivering enterprise security and controls from day one so teams can adopt fast and scale quickly.



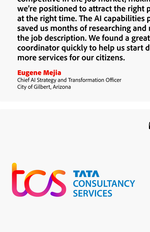
Other AI tools summarize. Acrobat AI Assistant reads structure and intent to deliver traceable citations teams can rely on for high-stakes work.

PDF Spaces accelerates collaboration by centralizing documents, context, and feedback in one intelligent workspace.

Adobe Express lets anyone create polished, on-brand content quickly using commercially safe AI and brand controls.

One platform. Every team. Better outcomes.

From document-heavy legal to content-driven marketing, Acrobat Studio brings intelligence, collaboration, and creation together for smarter, faster results.



Acrobat Studio for legal

Legal teams are swamped with complex contracts and slow reviews. Acrobat Studio helps them analyze and evaluate faster, turning dense documents into insights that drive the business forward.

Legal use cases

- Document review and summary
- Vendor risk assessment
- External content review
- Analyzer extracts insights across tens of thousands of documents, returning structured, cited data that teams can act on.

Acrobat Studio for finance

Finance teams are stretched by complex planning cycles, vendor scrutiny, and shrinking audit timelines. Acrobat Studio speeds reporting and simplifies collaboration, delivering faster decisions with trust and governance built in. Analyzer builds on that, turning documents into structured data.

Finance use cases

- Financial reporting
- Budget and forecast review
- Vendor spend analysis
- Audit preparation and support

Acrobat Studio for HR

HR teams face increasing demands across onboarding, training, compliance, and talent reviews. Acrobat Studio helps them securely accelerate workflows, improve communication, and build trust while reducing risk and cost.

HR use cases

- Talent onboarding and training
- Employee comms and engagement
- Policy interpretation and guidance
- Talent review and rewards

Acrobat Studio for sales

Sales teams often spend valuable time gathering information and building content-heavy proposals. Acrobat Studio helps them close deals faster, elevate client experiences, and maintain consistent messaging while boosting cross-functional alignment.

Sales use cases

- Proposal and pitch development
- RFP/RFQ response management
- Contract deal desk collaboration
- Sales enablement content

Acrobat Studio for marketing

Marketing teams are under pressure to deliver high-impact content while maintaining brand consistency across channels and regions. Acrobat Studio helps them create and localize content faster, turning static documents into compelling, on-brand campaigns.

Marketing use cases

- Campaign content reuse
- Event comms and collateral
- Campaign localization
- High-impact presentations

Customers are seeing value from Acrobat Studio.

> Acrobat AI Assistant helps us stay competitive in the job market, making sure we're positioned to attract the right people at the right time. The AI capabilities probably saved us months of researching and refining the job description. We found a great grant coordinator quickly to help us start delivering more services for our citizens.
